Fast

A response to your in-network bank reference request is guaranteed, and you'll get it fast — usually in just a few hours. If you're still doing bank references the old way, you're wasting time.

Streamlined

Simplify your workflow and manage requests in fewer steps from a single centralized solution. With cloud-based technology, you can work remotely and securely complete credit inquiries from anywhere. Plus, save time with the ability to send requests for multiple clients to multiple banks in one order.

Proven

Confirmation features the largest validated network to reduce the risk of fraud and guarantee each party on it is credible. We pass hundreds of security audits each year, and ensure the solution complies with regulatory standards.
